

Hello,

I plan on changing my introductory paragraph altogether. It did not effectively outline the rest of my essay. I will also include way more sources and try to incorporate many sources in a paragraph. I will also expand much more on the portion of the paper that discusses the positive and negative effects of piracy. I also need to smooth out the transitions and main ideas. The feedback provided definitely affirmed my angst regarding my paper; however, I think I have a fairly good grasp on what to change.
